You Are Responsible
please read
before wearing your costume

Congratulations! You have rented from Geppetto's Costumes.
Industry professionals designing for the best

Our experienced staff is excited that you will be using one of our custom-designed costumes. This costume was designed to help in the process of creating your character. We have worked hard to handcraft your costume.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR COSTUME

Remember, your costume is one part of a whole design concept. We hope that you love the costume, but even if you do not, your character does!

Thank you and work that look!

You are fully responsible for any damaged and/or non-returned items

DO

- Always store on a hanger
- Use a thread and needle to make minor alterations
- Steam costume while on hanger
- Hem with a basting stitch and take out before returning
- Place all accessory items together in same garment bag with tag prior to returning

DON'T

- Don't throw over a chair or on the floor
- Don't use safety pins unless it's an emergency
- Don't use a hot iron
- Don't cut, rip, or permanently alter a costume, nor an accessory
- Don't take anything home
- All items are rented and each must be returned
- The actor/wearer/theater is responsible for any missing item or accessory from you, don't lose things
